\Product Setup\Codes\Childcare Programs - WS\ST\CH\PS\CO\PR

1 - Validation of the Childcare Program Codes maintenance has been expanded to:

1. No longer allow exception days to be added on a date that already has expected attendance on a normally scheduled day.

2. No longer allow more than 20 program schedules to be assigned to a program.

Both scenarios are uncommon, but would cause data issues when they occurred.

Web Student Management\Students\District to District \Receive Student\Receive Student Tabs - WS\ST\DD\RE\TB

- 1 - The District to District process has been updated to increase the speed of the data transfer when sending and receiving students. The increase in speed involved creating a new format for the transfer of data. With the new format, you will notice an update in the display of data when processing Received Students. The data will now be divided into two columns. The first column will show the Incoming Data and the second column will show the Data to Save. These fields are the same fields that were available before, but they are now displayed in a cleaner format. In addition, the processing of the student records themselves has not changed.

Release

Enhancement

Proj#2245337

However, the new format is not compatible with the old format. Any existing records in the old format will display for viewing only in the Receive Students and Approved/Deny Requests browses.

Another item to note is that a district on the June 2014 Release will not be able to receive students from a district on the February 2014 Release and vice versa. Both districts will either need to be on the June 2014 Release using the updated format or on a release prior to June 2014.
