CLOVIS HIGH SCHOOL MARCHING BAND PLACES 8th AT THE BANDS OF AMERICA ST. LOUIS SUPER REGIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

The Clovis High School (CHS) Marching Band traveled to St. Louis, Missouri, Friday, October 26 to compete in the Bands of America (BOA) St. Louis Super Regional Championship. This competition marks a first BOA Super Regional for Clovis High School Marching Band.

Seventy-four bands from New Mexico, Arkansas, Georgia, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Ohio, Tennessee, Texas, and Wisconsin competed in the championship.

Following preliminaries, the band was awarded Outstanding Music Performance for Class 3A and earned a place in finals competition. The field was narrowed in finals competition to 14 bands and the CHS Marching Band earned an 8th place finish overall.

The Super Regional competition brings a close to a very successful season for the Clovis High School Marching Band.

The CHS Marching Band is under the direction of Mr. Bill Allred, and is assisted by Timothy Clifford, Stephanie Lenhart, Melissa Rice-Perez, Daniel Perez, Color Guard instructor Savannah Muir, and student teacher Andres Labastida.

As always, the CHS Marching Band thanks the Clovis Board of Education, administration, CHS Band Boosters, and the communities of Clovis and Cannon AFB for their unwavering support of the band program.

The mission of the Clovis Municipal Schools, an alliance highly committed to educational excellence, is to equip each student with the knowledge and skills needed for a productive life of creative thinking, continuous learning, and exemplary character through challenging and engaging learning experiences led by a dedicated, unified team in vital partnership with family, church, and community.
