U.S. AIR FORCE

CLOVIS HIGH SCHOOL AFJROTC CHANGE OF COMMAND & AWARDS CEREMONY

A Change of Command and Awards Ceremony for the Clovis High School Air Force Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps (AFJROTC) will be held at 7:15 a.m. Wednesday, February 14, in the north gym at Clovis High School. The ceremony is open to the public and parents, family, school officials, and community members are encouraged to attend and support the cadets.

During the ceremony, the new commander and staff will be announced and Wildcat Corps leader Cadet Corde' Mailman, commander for the past year, will turn over her command to the next generation of cadet leadership. In addition to naming the new command team, promotions will be received by approximately 30 cadets who are members of AFJROTC competitive teams.

Awards include presentation of the Silver Valor Award to Cadet Isaiah Hatfield for life saving, presentation to Clovis High School of a flag flown on a Cannon Air Force Base aircraft during a recent overseas mission, and a presentation to the Corps by the Cannon Spouse's Club.

The ceremony will also feature the Falcon Guard Drill Team, who will perform a segment of their competition routine.

The mission of AFJROTC is to develop citizens of character dedicated to serving their nation and community, while instilling values of citizenship, service to the United States, personal responsibility, and sense of accomplishment. When looking to fill tomorrow's career needs with the best candidates, there is simply no better place for the nation to look than AFJROTC!

The mission of the Clovis Municipal Schools, an alliance highly committed to educational excellence, is to equip each student with the knowledge and skills needed for a productive life of creative thinking, continuous learning, and exemplary character through challenging and engaging learning experiences led by a dedicated, unified team in vital partnership with family, church, and community.
