U.S. AIR FORCE

CLOVIS HIGH SCHOOL AFJROTC PROGRAM EARNS DISTINGUISHED UNIT AWARD

The Clovis High School AFJROTC program has been selected to receive the 2017-2018 Air Force JROTC Distinguished Unit Award by AFROTC Headquarters.

Clovis High School is one of 276 to receive the award, chosen from 890 total units.

This award recognizes Air Force JROTC units that have performed well above and beyond normal expectations, and that have distinguished themselves through outstanding service to their school and community while meeting the Air Force JROTC citizen development mission for America. To earn this distinction, the unit must maintain a minimum enrollment of 100 cadets, meet all headquarter deadlines, have at least seven functioning co-curricular teams, and a perform a minimum of 12 community service hours per cadet.

Air Force JROTC is located in 890 high schools across the United States and selected schools in Europe, the Pacific, and Puerto Rico. AFJROTC enrollment includes more than 120,000 cadets who perform over 1.6 million hours of community service each year.

The mission of AFJROTC is to develop citizens of character dedicated to serving their nation and community, while instilling values of citizenship, service to the United States, personal responsibility, and sense of accomplishment. When looking to fill tomorrow's career needs with the best candidates, there is simply no better place for the nation to look than AFJROTC!

Congratulations to the cadets and instructor team!

The mission of the Clovis Municipal Schools, an alliance highly committed to educational excellence, is to equip each student with the knowledge and skills needed for a productive life of creative thinking, continuous learning, and exemplary character through challenging and engaging learning experiences led by a dedicated, unified team in vital partnership with family, church, and community.
