CLOVIS HIGH SCHOOL WIND SYMPHONY SELECTED AS NMMEA STATE HONOR BAND

The New Mexico Music Educators Association (NMMEA) recently named the Clovis High School Wind Symphony the NMMEA State Honor Band for 2019.

This marks eight times the band has been selected as NMMEA Honor Band, six of which occurred under the direction of symphony Director Bill Allred. Both distinctions are state records.

Recordings were submitted to three out-of-state judges who, by unanimous vote, chose Clovis High School to receive this distinct honor.

The Clovis High School Wind Symphony will perform in Clovis on January 8, 2019, and later that week at the 2019 NMMEA All-State Convention, Popejoy Hall, University of New Mexico campus, in Albuquerque. Information on the Albuquerque performance and times for both concerts will be announced in the fall.

The Wind Symphony would like to thank the Clovis Schools Board of Education, Superintendent, Cabinet Members, CHS administration, CHS Band Boosters, and the community for their continued support of the band program.

Congratulations - you make us proud!
