YUCCA MIDDLE SCHOOL FCCLA PARTICIPATES IN CHAPTER OFFICER RETREAT FOR EXCELLENCE TRAINING

On October 24th six officers from Yucca Middle School's FCCLA chapter participated in the New Mexico Chapter Officer Retreat for Excellence (C.O.R.E.) training held in Albuquerque. The training is for Career Technical Student Organizations (CTSO), and empowers students to explore career paths, develop leadership skills, and become productive citizens.

During the C.O.R.E. training, over 600 outstanding CTSO students attended high energy, interactive sessions where they learned essential skills needed to be successful professional leaders. Family Career and Community Leaders of America was one of six CTSO groups to participate in the training.

Amy Garcia, Yucca Middle School FCCLA Adviser, stated, "The training is a great opportunity for our younger leaders to experience and be able to start developing their leadership skills from an early age." Officers focused on learning about their personal leadership style, how to produce winning presentations, goal setting, and teamwork.

It is the mission of FCCLA to promote personal growth and leadership development through Family and Consumer Sciences education. Focusing on the multiple roles of family member, wage earner and community leader, members develop skills for life through: character development, creative and critical thinking, interpersonal communication, practical knowledge, and career preparation.

The mission of the Clovis Municipal Schools, an alliance highly committed to educational excellence, is to equip each student with the knowledge and skills needed for a productive life of creative thinking, continuous learning, and exemplary character through challenging and engaging learning experiences led by a dedicated, unified team in vital partnership with family, church, and community.
