CLOVIS FFA COMPETES AT DISTRICT IV LEADERSHIP CONTEST

On December 7th, the Clovis FFA participated in the District IV FFA Leadership contest held at House, New Mexico. The competition included over 100 students from Texico, Tatum, Portales, Floyd, Ft. Sumner, Elida, Grady, Dora, House, and Melrose Schools. The competition events focused on creating situations for members to demonstrate their abilities in public speaking, decision-making, communication, and knowledge of agriculture and the FFA organization.

Eighteen students from the Clovis FFA Chapter participated with four qualifying to compete at the State level.

Contest Results:

Job Interview ~ J'Lea Fuqua (4th Place) & Corben Pettigrew (10th Place)

Chapter Prepared ~ Catherine Hisel (5th Place & State Qualified) & Jack Palla (6th Place)

Extemporaneous Speech ~ Deanne Guthrie (4th Place & State Qualified) &
Anthony Sharer (6th Place)

Junior High Prepared ~ John Hisel (3rd Place & State Qualified) & Brenin Hillis (4th Place)

Illustrated Talk ~ Allison Arias (1st Place & State Qualified), John Hisel (2nd Place & State Qualified), Brenin Hillis (6th Place), & Skyler Jordan (7th Place)

FFA makes a positive difference in the lives of students by developing their potential for premier leadership, personal growth, and career success through agricultural education.

The FFA students dedicate many hours to the success of the Clovis program. Congratulations to the students and sponsors, Kalynn Baldock, Diego Dow, Kristin Smith, and Jeremy Nunn.

The mission of the Clovis Municipal Schools, an alliance highly committed to educational excellence, is to equip each student with the knowledge and skills needed for a productive life of creative thinking, continuous learning, and exemplary character through challenging and engaging learning experiences led by a dedicated, unified team in vital partnership with family, church, and community.
