INTERVIEW COMMITTEE SELECTS DEPUTY SUPERINTENDENT OF INSTRUCTION

On August 30th, a six-member interview committee interviewed three candidates for the position of Deputy Superintendent of Instruction.

Joe Strickland has accepted the position of Deputy Superintendent of Instruction for Clovis Municipal Schools.

Joe served as a teacher in both the Portales and Floyd school districts prior to coming to Clovis Schools in 1998 where he taught second and fourth grades at Parkview Elementary School. Mr. Strickland returned to the Floyd School District in 2000 to teach at the middle school level. In 2001, Joe began teaching at Lincoln-Jackson Arts Academy until he was hired as the assistant principal at Marshall Middle School for the 2008-2009 school year. Mr. Strickland served as the District's Director of Human Resources from 2009- 2014. He has been the Director of Federal Programs since December 2014.

His new position will begin immediately. This vacancy was created by the retirement of Cindy Martin.

Congratulations Joe!

The mission of the Clovis Municipal Schools, an alliance highly committed to educational excellence, is to equip each student with the knowledge and skills needed for a productive life of creative thinking, continuous learning, and exemplary character through challenging and engaging learning experiences led by a dedicated, unified team in vital partnership with family, church, and community.
