2. Manage the department in a manner that promotes positive and productive relationships between colleagues, students, parents and community.
3. Demonstrate a willingness to examine and implement change necessary to produce efficient and effective systems and increase student achievement.
4. Follow board policies and administrative rules and regulations.

Additional Duties and Responsibilities:

1. Select, use, and interpret evaluation data.
2. Be available to parents, students, administration, and colleagues outside the school day when needed.
3. Develop and use community and professional resources.
4. Chair all department meetings.
5. Serve as a consultant to teachers within his/her department and principals district wide.
6. Provide leadership to department committees for new text adoptions, and recommend supplementary materials for his/her department. Inventory textbooks and equipment as needed by the administration.
7. Be knowledgeable in new trends and developments within his/her departmental content area, and recommend pilot or experimental programs for consideration.
8. Recommend and/or provide in-service training programs for his/her department when needed. Attend or facilitate those programs as the leader of the department.
9. Assist new teachers in methodology, technique, materials, or any other function needed to enhance the new teacher’s ability to be successful.
10. Provide the leadership for developing curriculum for his/her department.
11. The department chairperson will lead the effort in working with middle school department chairpersons and elementary teachers to coordinate the curriculum throughout the district.
12. Select people for any advisory committees necessary for his/her department. Make sure that the advisory committees meet when necessary.
13. Complete or assist with all surveys, forms, and state reports that are required of his/her department by local administrators or the Public Education Department.
14. As requested by the building principal, observe the teaching of members of the department that might need assistance in classroom management, development of lessons, or any other area related to classroom teaching. Conference with the teacher and make constructive recommendations.
15. Administer the budget and resources if allocated to the department.
16. Review requests for new equipment, instructional materials and supplies for the department. When requests are appropriate, submit request following district procedures and place the order following purchasing protocol.
17. Represent the department as necessary for evaluation cycles by the Public Education Department or North Central Association.
18. Make recommendations for high school master schedule.
19. Attend, or select another department member to attend, conferences mandated by the Public Education Department or conferences that the high school principal or central office administration believes would be beneficial for a department member to attend.
20. Attend department chairperson meetings called by the high school administration or Central Office administration.
21. Recommend any changes in the registration handbook to the Head Guidance Counselor.
22. Monitor the curriculum that is being taught in the classroom by the department members.
23. Work with all principals and counselors to ensure the department runs smoothly.
24. Other tasks deemed appropriate or necessary by the immediate supervisor(s) or Superintendent.

Qualifications:

1. Bachelor’s degree.
2. Valid Level II or III New Mexico teaching license with endorsements as needed.
3. Such alternatives to the above qualifications as the Superintendent may find appropriate and acceptable.
