

October Newsletter

Dear Parents,

Thank you to everyone for being involved in your child's education and attending Parent-Teacher conferences. Please know that we want to keep the communication open with you throughout the whole school year.

Thank you to those who have supported our fundraiser. The fundraiser money is due Friday, October 4th. We will send an email out once the items arrive.

We will be doing our Literacy Pumpkin contest again this year. Be planning with your child which book character they would like their pumpkin to represent. More information will be sent home soon.

Character Counts Week is October 15-19. We want to show our Zia spirit during this week.

Monday: "Steppin UP Good Character"
(hat/socks day)

Tuesday: "Zia is STUCK on Good Character"
(duct tape wear)

Wednesday: "Don't Hide Good Character"
(wear camo)

Thursday: "Show Your Super Character"
(super hero Day)

Friday: "Teaming with Good Character"
(favorite team attire)

Just a reminder with Halloween being on a school day this year---We already have a spirit week this month, so please refrain from wearing costumes on Halloween.

Your partner in education,
Shalei Bennett
